

"Blessed are the pure in heart because they will see God" (Matthew 5: 8)

ESMERALDA A PRECIOUS STONE

About two years ago, I met a family, consisting of a 5-year-old boy called Andre; scared, shy, introverted, had no friends; the only friend was his dog "smiles" and his mother Esmeralda.

She is a woman of about 35 years, her figure is thin and her face conveyed sadness, her gestures asked for help, she was born deaf mute and the left side of her body is paralyzed, the child is the fruit of rape !!!!!

I remember that I immediately asked FEDICE for help to present the case of Esmeralda and Andre, and we put "Hands on work", no matter the adversities that we encounter on the way to help this family have a decent life, that life that Jesus Christ offers us, urgent priority a house.

I remember that with the FEDICE group we went up to the place, in the middle of mud, as it had rained and the car stayed down, holding us together so as not to fall or slip, "together to help" because the need and help go from hand.

In that unit is not only the church and FEDICE is all the people, churches, institutions that we do not see, but also we feel them in our hearts, in every smile from Esmeralda and Andre.

Esmeralda does not speak, but her expressions of affection do not need any words, her smiling face tells us she is very grateful for the help she has received. She is now part of the team working in the church, she is the one who puts the atmosphere full of joy!!!!

I cannot finish this story without first thanking the Holy Spirit for making you and us sensitive, because without your help we could not present Jesus Christ in a practical way.

I started this story with a verse from the sermon on the mountain and I want to end with another "Blessed are the compassionate because God will have compassion on them"

May Almighty God bless their lives, thank you very much for your help.

Pastor Carmen Castañeda
Member of FEDICE BOARD
Ecuador